

City of Voices Community Theatre Group presents

The Carnival of Shadows

St Kilda Festival, 10th February 2019

Date: Sunday 10th February 2019

When: Two roving performances running from 12 – 12.30pm and 1 – 1.30pm

Where: Each performance will begin in front of Christ Church Community Centre, 14 Acland St, St Kilda. Performers will then rove down Acland St towards Fitzroy St, turn left into Fitzroy St, come up The Esplanade, and turn down Victoria St. The performance will finish back at Christ Church Community Centre.

What: The Carnival of Shadows transforms members of the City of Voices into a rag-tag troupe of travelling artistes who entertain, delight, make magic and mischief. The Woman who Plays the Golden Spoons; the Fortune Singer; the Lion Un-Tamer. And more! Watch on in awe as the City of Voices members take their weird and wonderful Shadow Characters to the streets of Port Phillip.

City of Voices is an inclusive theatre company operating as a program of Port Melbourne Neighbourhood Centre. Our mission is to give all people, regardless of age, ability or socio-economic status, the opportunity to engage in the creative arts. Established in 1992, City of Voices has been creating original and challenging theatrical work of and for their local community for over 25 years.

These short performances are a lead-up to a site-specific performance, The Carnival of Shadows, to be held at St Martins Place theatre in early June 2019.

The City of Voices would like to acknowledge the following generous supporters:
